NORTHERN ASSURANCE COMP'Y., LONDON. HEAD OFFICE FOR THE UNITED STATES, No. 37 South Third Street, Philadelphia. CAPITAL......$6,298,800 00 Paid up Capital and Surplus 2,194,111 02

SECURITY TO POLICY HOLDERS. THIS old and responsible Company insures against loss or damage by Fire, almost every description of property, and offers to Merchants and others desiring insurance, the security of an actual Capital of $6,298,800, for the whole of which, and for any liabilities beyond, the Shareholders are INDIVIDUALLY RESPONSIBLE, even to the extent of their entire fortunes. The Shareholders number about one thousand, and as a large portion of these are persons of great wealth, the most ample against the Company. SUBJECT TO THE LAWS OF THE UNITED STATES. In appointing an Agent for the United States, the Company has empowered him "to appear to and accept any action or legal proceedings instituted against or by said Company, in the same Company established by the laws of the United States, or any of the several States." PROVISION FOR PAYMENT OF LOSSES IN THE UNITED STATES. A SPECIAL PERMANENT FUND HAS BEEN PLACED AT THE DISPOSAL OF THE AGENT AT PHILADELPHIA. TO ENABLE BIM TO ADJUST AND PROMPTLY PAY ALL

Losses, WITHOUT REFERENCE TO LONDON. LIBERAL TO THE INSURED. The uniform course of the Company has always peen a liberal one towards Policy Holders. No just claim has ever been disputed, and prompt payment of losses is a standing rule. During the past year, losses exceeding $525,000 were paid. Losses paid as soon as the amount is ascertained.
ANNUAL INCOME.

The Income of the Company is now about $1,-000,000, increasing gradually each year, showing that it has the confidence of the different communities in which business is done. RATE OF PREMIUM.

The Rate of Premium will be moderate, and in all cases will be based upon the character of the owner or occupant, and the merits of the risk. The conditions of Insurance are framed with the greatest liberality.

JAMES T. CLOSE, Agent.

Tear Office in Exchange Block, on King street. SOUTHERN PROTECTION INSURANCE COMPANY.

ALEXANDRIA, VIRGINIA. CAPITAL OVER 350,000 DOLLARS, AND CONSTANTLY INCREASING. The Charter of this Company offers more favorable advantages to the farmer and others, than any Company chartered in the State, by insuring with or without a premium note. If the applicant prefer, he can pay the full amount of the premium and Paints and Oils of every description, prefer, he can pay the full amount of the premium which we are prepared to sell at the very lowest in each, or by effecting a cash insurance for two in each, or by effecting a cash insurance for two years, the insured saves one-eighth of the amount he would otherwise have to pay; or by becoming member, and giving a small premium note, the insured saves nearly one-half of the amount charged by Stock Companies, when insuring from year to year. This is the advantage resulting from the ombination of the CASH AND MUTUAL PRINCIPLE. This Company commenced issuing Policies against loss or damage by fire, on the 13th day of March, 1854, since which time over seven thousand seven handred persons have insured and become nembers of the Company, and over seventy thousand dollars have been paid for losses. Having nereased our business during the past year, we feel grateful for the liberal patronage bestowed upon he Company thus far, and for its flattering prospeets of future usefulness. The Directors hope and believe, that, by prudence, caution, and a rigid system of economy, they will establish for this Company a reputation for cheapness and safety not surpassed by any Company in the U. States. All differences in settlement of losses, may b letermined by three disinterested arbitrators of the County where such loss happened, to be mutually

MISCELLANEOUS READING.

A CUNARD RECKONING. - In a voyage to America, some nine years since, on the seventh or eight day out from Liverpool, Captain L-came to dinner at eight bells as usual, talked a little to the persons right ted on the fish, looking rather grave the while. Then he went on deck again; and this time was absent, it may be, three or five minutes, during which the fish disappeared, and the entrees arrived, and the roast beef. Say ten minutes passed-I can't tell after nine years. Then L-came down with a happy countenance, this time and began carving the sirloin. "We have seen the light," he said; "Madame, may I help you to a little gravy or a little horse radish!" or what not? I forget the name of the light, nor does it matter. It was a point of Newfoundland for which he was on the lookout, and so well did the Canada know where she was that between soup and beef the captain had sighted the headland by which his course was lying. And so through storm and darkness, through fog and midnight, the ship had pursued her steady way over the pathless ocean and roaring seas so surely that the officers who sailed her knew her place within a minute or two, and guided us with a wonderful providence safe on our

Since the noble Cunard Company has run its ships, but one accident, and that through the error of the pilot, has happened on the line. By this little incident (hourly of course repeated, and trivial to all sengoing people) I own I was immensely moved, and never can think of it but with a heart full of thanks and awe. We trust our lives to these seamen, and how nobly they fulfil the trust ! They are, under heaven, as a Providence for us. While we sleep, their untiring watchfulness keeps guard over us. All night through, that bell sounds at his season, and tells how our sentinels defend us. It rang when the Amazon was on fire, and chimed its heroic signal of duty and courage and honor. Think of the dangers these seamen undergo for us, the hourly peril and watch, the familiar storm, the dreadful iceberg, the long winter nights when the decks are as glass and the sailor has to climb through icicles to bend the stiff sail on the yard. Think of their courage and their kindnesses in cold. in tempest, in hunger, in wreck!-Cornhill
